

Proof positive of the perils of FCC deregulation is being played out by Sinclair right now. This is egregious and to have to argue the illegality of it is an insult. Hold this company accountable and do not renew their licenses to "serve the public interest"! Thank you.